

CONFIDENTIAL

NSA

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 24 April 1967

Page 2

25X1 [] Met with Mr. Julian G. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and provided him with a requested extract from the December 1966 issue of Ramparts magazine. ✓

25X1 [] Met with Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and confirmed with him the arrangements for the Director's meeting with the CIA Subcommittee for tomorrow, Tuesday, 25 April at 9:00 a.m. Mr. Michaels noted that the Chairman would be a few minutes late arriving, but had requested Representative Andrews to chair the meeting starting at 9:00 a.m. until his arrival.

25X1 [] Talked with Representative Glenard Lipscomb concerning the SOS breakfast on 26 April. He suggested a short ten-minute or so talk by the Director on the NSA/CIA funding situation and then throw it open to questions. Mr. Lipscomb said he thought the group would be most appreciative of the Director's personal participation. ✓

25X1 [] Delivered to Mr. Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, the letter from the Director to Chairman Rivers dated 21 April concerning the Pearson column of 7 April 1967. Blandford said this was precisely what they needed for their files.

25X1 [] Talked with Jim Gehrig, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee staff, and gave him the current status of our knowledge of the situation surrounding the death of the Soviet cosmonaut.

25X1 [] Contacted William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and briefed him on the situation concerning the Soviet cosmonaut fatality including the fact that this shot had run into difficulties from the start. Darden had not heard the news of Komarov's death and was most appreciative of our contacting him.

25X1 [] Contacted Bill Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the situation concerning the Soviet cosmonaut fatality including the fact that this shot had run into difficulties from the start. Woodruff said this information was most useful and expressed his appreciation for our contact.

CONFIDENTIAL